1. In early May the Chinese Communist authorities in Canton were attempting to arrest all former supporters and members of WANG Ching-wei's puppet government, including those who served terms under the Nationalist regime after World War II as punishment for supporting the WANG government. All suspicious persons in Canton are being detained and cross-examined for about eight hours by the Public Security Bureau. If answers are inconsistent the suspect is immediately arrested.
2. In mid-May WANG Chien-fu (汪健夫), a Chinese Communist representative in Hong Kong engaged in gathering intelligence, was gathering information on the activities of the Kwangsi guerrilla representatives in Hong Kong. He was using as unwitting informants his close friends LIO Chia-jui (廖家瑞) and CHEN Kung-chan (陳公展), Nationalist members of the Kwangsi clique. WANG operates the I Nan (益南) Transportation Co.; his office is in Room 308 Hsin Huang Hou (新皇后) Hotel, Kowloon. He is about 40 years of age, a native of Kweilin, and joined the Chinese Communist intelligence service in 1949 in Kwangsi, after the province was taken over by the Communists. He was recommended to the Communists by LO Yun-feng (羅雲峰), a senior Party member. In June 1950 he was sent to Hong Kong by the Kwangsi authorities.
3. In late May training centers for the instruction of fishermen in the gathering of intelligence were being established by the Kwangtung Military District Command in each of the following areas: Yangchiang (111-53, 21-52), Hsuewen (110-07, 20-25), Peihai (109-05, 21-24), in the Wanshan Islands, and at Yulin. Classes are to start on 1 June with 500 trainees in each center. The training period will be for three months.
